

BIRD, Lucknow is organizing an online Lecture on ‘The Economic Diplomacy of India: A Bird’s Eye View’ on 28 July 2021

BIRD, Lucknow brings for you a highly enriching and informative lecture on The Economic Diplomacy of India: A Bird’s Eye View’ under BIRD Lecture Series on 28th July 2021. The online lecture is scheduled at 03:00 PM by Shri Prabodh Saxena (IAS), Additional chief Secretary, Government of Himachal Pradesh. Shri Prabodh Saxena is a Post Graduate in Law from the reputed London School of Economics and Political Science, London and is nationally and internationally acclaimed for his publications on wide variety of topics of relevance. Shri Prabodh Saxena in his lecture will take us through the two important components of economic diplomacy of India:

1. Journey of India as a recipient of foreign aid including bilateral as well as multilateral source of funding;
2. India as a donor to developing countries in Asia & Africa.

The lecture has tremendous value in terms of providing a policy perspective on how India views and acts on receiving foreign funding aid and also providing assistance as a donor to the Asian and African countries. The lecture will be referenced heavily to the banking support in these operations. You can join the lecture by clicking the following link:
